MSJ AGENCY SDN BHD MALAYSIA

A RIGHT PARTNER FOR YOUR BUSINESS

MALAYSIA

- Port Klang Authority was established on 1 July 1963, taking over the administration of Port Klang from the Malayan Railway Administration. In 1986, in line with Malaysian government privatization guidelines the privatization of the PKA began with the divestment of container terminal activities to a private company, Klang Container Terminal Berhad. In 1992, the remainder of the port's operations were divested to Klang Port Management Berhad and in 1994, new facilities on Pulau Lumut Island were divested to Kelang Multi Terminal Sendirian Berhad which is now known as Westports Malaysia Sdn Bhd. 2000 saw the founding of Northport, Malaysia, a large port facility at Port Klang. The port currently consists of 3 principal areas: Northport, Westports Malaysia and South Point. Further expansion is planned. The Port Klang Authority regulates the activities of the port operator companies, and functions as the landlord of the port.

SEA PORT OF MALAYSIA

- Port Klang is the largest port in Malaysia and one of the busiest ports in the world. It is located in the state of Selangor, on the Straits of Malacca, which is one of the busiest shipping lanes in the world.
- Penang is the hub for the northern area. Port Klang is mainly for the Klang Valley, while PTP is able to challenge [Singapore directly], especially on transshipment cargo.
- Pasir Gudang Johor Port (Malay: Pelabuhan Johor) is a port in Pasir Gudang, Johor, Malaysia, built in 1977. It is an integrated multi-purpose port facility providing bulk cargo, container and general cargo services.
- Tanjung pelepas (PTP) is strategically located at the confluence of the main east-west shipping lanes, offering Shipping Lines deviation time of a mere 45 minutes and situated in a sheltered bay with no tide restrictions.
